4/12/2017	MS and SGS met with [REDACTED] at EO	MS and SGS explained the concern raised by the comments in the incident report and asked [REDACTED] if he had more information to share. [REDACTED] response: "There was about 5 or 6 people all in my room. My friend [no last name] was talking about how people are hypersensitive here and getting mad about the hypersensitivity. He was saying things like, "I can't say the word faggot here." MS and SGS explained the impact that those comments can have on members of the Western community. MS and SGS reiterated the impact of those words – regardless of the intent [REDACTED] said that he did not say the words heard, but a friend did. MS and SGS explained that as the owner of the room is his responsibility to hold his guests to the standard (of housing and Western), even intervening in this type of behavior. [REDACTED] said he understood this. Given the timing of events, MS and SGS also discussed the "DROP DAUGHTERS OFF HERE!!" sign that had been posted on [REDACTED] balcony. [REDACTED] said that he did not post the sign, but that this old roommate who is no longer a student, [REDACTED], had made and posted the sign. [REDACTED] did confirm however that when he returned home and knew the sign was posted from his balcony he did not remove it. MS and SGS again discussed the impact of this sign and the message it sends to members of the Western community. MS and SGS explained to [REDACTED] that they would be following up with him further based on this conduct.
